After serious consideration I have concluded that Council Member Jolanda Jones should be re-elected to At Large Position 5.

As the incumbent, Jolanda has four years of experience in navigating the politics of City Hall while her challenger is unfamiliar with the workings of city government.

While I may not agree with all of Council Member Jones' positions, she is one of the few at City Hall that will stand up for the downtrodden even when it's one against fourteen.

Next year there will seventeen members on the council and I have no doubt that she will continue to be firm in her resolve to vote for what she feels is best for the taxpayers of Houston.

Please join me in supporting Jolanda Jones for re-election.

Yours very truly,

Robert C. Ryan
